

I truly believe we need to reinstate the Equal Time Rule. Our media is the people's link to their government. Showing biased materials two weeks before the election is an abuse of their powers and a failure of the responsibilities they have to the public. Our country is growing more polarized. Please do what you can to stop this. Reinstating the Equal Time Rule will lead us in that direction.